Minutes of the General Meeting of 15 November 1962

The Meeting was opened by Commodore Rick Van Mell, a quorum having been determined to be present. Officers present, in addition to the Commodore, were: Tad Kiefaber, Vice-Commodore
Brian Klinger, Secretary
Rich Miller, Treasurer
Steve Blecher, RTC

The newsletters, it was announced, are well on the way to completion. All volunteer typists are requested to contact Tim Bryant right away.

The new motor, which the Club has not yet purchased, is sick. A possible diagnosis is spark-plug disease, and Dr. Blecher announced that treatment will be commenced soon.

Work continues on the Techs in the mad scramble to get them in decent shape. Saturday is the deadline, for that fateful day Colby College will be HERE to take delivery and pay us!

Tad Kiefaber announced that Rec will continue one week after Thanksgiving. The new boats will be here then, and work will commence in Hopkins' Center. In that week one afternoon will be devoted to chalk-talk and work combination, and the other to work. Check the bulletin board outside the office for details.

The docks are coming out this Monday 19 November. ALL members are requested to report to the Inn Corner at 1330. Double credit will be given for Rec members who are there Monday. However, those Rec members who are scheduled for Tuesday rec don't forget to show up then as well, since there will be cleanup work to do.

Steve Blecher announced that there will be 6 men in the winter Rec program - either Sophomores or Freshmen with "B" classifications. It will involve about 4-5 hours of work per week. Names of those interested were taken.

Committees were appointed by the Commodore to be in charge of each detail of construction of the new fleet, and their duties were explained.

Sub-totals for the Klinger Intercollegiate Trophy were announced.

A treasurer's report was presented and showed the following balances:

checking account,	$ 745.64
savings account,	$ 352.13
TOTAL ASSETS	$1097.77

It was noted for the minutes that a $100. check has been received from DCAC for this year's Boat Taxes.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Brian S. Klinger, Secretary
